

Students printing documents policy

Leeds English Language School encourages students to use the IT facilities in the school and to print educational materials for study use. All Leeds English Language School computers are linked to a printer. Within reason the school allows limited printing and copying of personal documents. A small fee may be charged to students who are seen to be printing or copying large amounts of non-educational documents.